Hon. E. M. G. Haultain,

Chief Justice,

Regina.

Dear Mr. Haultain:

When I got your card yesterday afternoon I felt keenly disappointed at having missed you. If I had known that you were in town I should have certainly made arrangements to spend a little time with you. It is too bad that after your long absence we should not have seen more of you at the University.

With kind regards,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Chief Justice E. M. G. Haultain,

Regina, Sask.

My dear Mr. Chief Justice:

I am sorry that it will be impossible for you to come down to Toronto in June in order to receive the honorary degree. However, we shall of course postpone the conferring of it until next year, and shall anticipate this deferred pleasure. I am glad to know that you will be able to make arrangements then so as to be with us.

With kind regards,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
